LITURGY OF THE WORD

In the Scriptures, God speaks to us, his people, in inspired words, opening to us the mystery of redemption and salvation and offering us spiritual nourishment. Christ himself is present in the midst of the faithful through his Word. As we are fed by the Word of God, we sit in attentive silence or offer our voices in song in full participation. We stand for the Gospel, showing great reverence for Jesus Christ present there, and finally we affirm the faith we have in the Creed before offering up our hearts to the Lord in our Universal Prayers.

FIRST READING:

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES 2: 1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem.

At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans?"

Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

The Word of the Lord.

℟. Thanks be to God

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34

℟. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD, my God, you are great indeed!

How manifold are your works, O Lord!

the earth is full of your creatures; ℟

May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
may the LORD be glad in his works!

Pleasing to him be my theme;

I will be glad in the LORD. ℟

If you take away their breath, they perish and return to their dust.

When you send forth your spirit, they are created,

and you renew the face of the earth. ℟

SECOND READING:

1 CORINTHIANS 12:3B-7, 12-13

Brothers and sisters: No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.

To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

The Word of the Lord.

℟. Thanks be to God.

ALLELUIA

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

GOSPEL: JOHN 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were,
for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.” When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit.
Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

℟. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PASTORAL REFLECTION

Let's give the stage over to Pope John Paul II today, in a passage from his Apostolic Exhortation
Redemptoris Mater:

At the first dawn of the Church, at the beginning of the long journey through faith which began at Pentacost in Jerusalem, Mary was with all those who were the seed of the “new Israel”. She was present among them as an exceptional witness to the mystery of Christ. And the Church was assiduous in prayer together with her, and at the same time “contemplated her in the light of the Word made man.” It was always to be so. For when the Church “enters more intimately into the supreme mystery of the Incarnation,” she thinks of the Mother of Christ with profound reverence and devotion. Mary belongs indissolubly to the mystery of Christ, and she belongs also to the mystery of the Church from the beginning, from the day of the Church's birth. At the basis of what the Church has been from the beginning, and of what she must continually become from generation to generation, in the midst of all the nations of the earth, we find the one “who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her from the Lord” (Lk. 1:45). It is precisely Mary's faith which marks the beginning of the new and eternal covenant of God with man in Jesus Christ; this heroic faith of hers “precedes” the apostolic witness of the Church, and ever remains in the Church's heart hidden like a special heritage of God's revelation. All those who from generation to generation accept the apostolic witness of the Church share in that mysterious inheritance, and in a sense share in Mary's faith.

MATTHEW 25 MINISTRY: With Hurricane Season fast approaching, we are revisiting our Matthew 25 Ministry. Following Hurricane Katrina, this ministry was created to assist with hurricane preparations and disaster response. We have been fortunate since we have not had to activate our team in quite some time; we pray to remain in preparation mode again this hurricane season. Mr. Alvin Ordoyne has served as our Team Captain and is very experienced with the inner workings of this ministry. He has expressed a desire to strengthen our team, so if you are interested in participating in any capacity please give us a call (447-2013). The stronger our ministry is, the better we can serve those in need should the time come.

HOUMA-THIBODAU 40TH ANNIVERSARY: Our diocese is celebrating 40 years! The liturgical celebrations will commence officially on Saturday, June 3rd at St. Joseph Co-Cathedral at 7:00PM for Solemn Vespers (Evening Prayer). This solemn prayer will honor those who today give so generously of themselves in service to their parish communities in our diocese. A reception will follow at the Life Center next to the Church. Sunday, June 4th at 2:00 PM at the Cathedral of Saint Francis de Sales, we will thank God for his many blessings poured out upon our diocese in these past 40 years. We will begin with Mass at 2:00PM, and a reception will follow at the Knights of Columbus Hall across the street from the Church. All are welcome to join us!

VBC REGISTRATION & SUPPLIES: VBC is coming! Registration forms and fees are due June 5th. Forms for campers and volunteers are available in the Information Center, and fees for campers are $25 per camper. Listed below are the non-perishable supplies needed. Please consider donating!

Prayer for Protection during Hurricane Season

Our Father in Heaven, through the intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, spare us during this hurricane season from all harm.

Protect us and our homes
from all disasters of nature.
Our Lady of Prompt Succor,
hasten to help us.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.
